Call to Worship and Opening Prayer of Praise from Psalm 9:9-12

Alicee Sena

One: The LORD is a stronghold for the oppressed, a fortress in times of trouble.

All: And those who know your name put their trust in you, for you, O LORD, have not forsaken those who seek you.

One: Sing praises to the LORD, who dwells in Zion. Declare his deeds among the peoples.

All: For he who avenges blood is mindful of them; he does not forget the cry of the afflicted.

One: Hear our cries for mercy, justice and our shouts of praise as we worship you this day, O Lord our God, now and forevermore.

All: Amen.

*Come, Now is the Time to Worship

*Call to and Prayer of Confession continuing in Psalm 20

Christina Hill

One: Please join me in our responsive Prayer of Confession. Be gracious to me, O LORD. You are the one who lifts me up from the gates of death, so that I may recount all your praises and rejoice in your deliverance.

All: The nations have sunk in the pit that they made; in the net that they hid has their own foot been caught. The LORD has made himself known, he has executed judgment; the wicked are snared in the work of their own hands.

One: The wicked shall depart to Sheol, all the nations that forget God.

All: For the needy shall not always be forgotten, nor the hope of the poor perish forever. Rise up, O LORD! Do not let mortals prevail; let the nations be judged before you. Forgive us as we bow before your judgment, lifting up our silent confessions.
